AGRICULTURAL WRITERS CONFERENCE AT COLLEGE

During The Farmers Short Course at A. and M. College July 24-29 Many Subjects Will Be Discussed—A Banquet Will Close The Conference Exercises.

(By Associated Press)

College Station, Texas, July 5.—The Agricultural Writers' Conference at the A. & M. College of Texas, July 24 to 29, inclusive, meeting in the conference room of the Research Administration building, will be held for the first time in connection with the farmers' short course at that institution. The arrangement resulted from a conference of newspaper people which found that opportunity would be afforded to obtain familiarity with the organization of the college and to bring the newspapers of the state located in farming communities to a fuller and more effective handling of agricultural news. "The results of the research work of the experiment station as developed by its scientists and adopted to the current needs of farmers by specialists of the extension service and taught to the students by the professors of the college, constitute the most prolific source of news material that can be found available to the press," one editor comments. "The opportunity to the press, therefore, in making this information the most telling feature in each issue of these publications read largely by farmers is obvious! and is equally obvious that a large number of skilled writers qualified to handle agricultural discussions, must be provided for, if the publications are to present such matter to their readers."

Monday's program includes a welcome address by Dr. W. B. Bizzell with the opening session of the conference under A. D. Jackson executive assistant of the experiment station presiding and an inspection tour of all engineering features of the campus, conducted by George A. Long.

The College of Agriculture will explain its functions, Rotary fashion, on Tuesday, using a specialist for each phase led by Dr. J. O. Morgan, acting dean. The Experiment Station, scientists likewise will explain their several functions, led by Dr. B. Youngblood, director, followed by an inspection tour of Animal Husbandry equipment of the School of Agriculture, conducted by George A. Long.

Extension Service specialists will tell of their work, led by T. O. Walton, director, on Wednesday, when a discussion will be held with the following papers read: "How to bring local papers to use more agricultural copy," S. D. Chestnut, Kennedy, president; "The Agricultural Newsfield open to the big daily," F. O. Martin, publicity secretary, A. & M. College. An inspection tour of the Experiment Station buildings and out-door laboratories will be conducted by Mr. Long.

The field of women in agriculture writing will be brought up in general discussion by the women present at the conference, led by Mrs. Phoebe K. Warner, Claude, Texas, on Thursday. Buford O. Brown, of Electra, Texas, will have charge of general discussion of agricultural journalism after the noon lunch and Mr. Long will direct an inspection tour of the school of Veterinary Medicine and the Research Division. An evening conference at Guion Hall will hear the subject of the function of the press in handling agricultural information discussed by S. C. Hoyle, for extension, G. H. Alford, secretary of the farm bureau, for farmers, and Frank Briggs, editor of "Farm and Ranch" for the press. The last day of the meeting, Friday July 23, resolves itself in the morning into a clearing house for source material for agricultural writers, under direction of DeWitt McMurray, editor of the Dallas Semi-Weekly Farm News. "Agricultural Advertising," will be the subject of a talk by A. D. Jackson, at the noon lunch. A round table discussion in the early afternoon will precede an inspection tour to horticultural features of the school of Agriculture and Experiment Station. A banquet in honor of the visiting newspaper people with Hon. Lee J. Rountree, editor of the Bryan Eagle, orator of the Texas Press Association as principal speaker, and Ike Ashburn as toastmaster, will be held in the evening, and the conference will "take thirty," i. e., have reached a conclusion.

IOLA WELL MAKES SHOWING.

(Special to the Bryan Eagle). Iola, Texas, July 6.—Residents of Iola were ready to stage an impromptu Fourth of July celebration when word was passed that the pay sand had been reached in the King and Olson well drilling one mile east of Iola. Inquiring of the camping official, however, disclosed the facts that the rumor evidently had emanated from the showing of gas and made Monday night in soft sand under a hard sandy lime formation. Drilling was interrupted while core-barrel is being taken. The King and Olson test is being followed closely by big companies as well as individuals because it is the first deep test likely to be completed in Texas which has been located and approved by the "double barreled" combination of regular geologists, and the "Doodle Bug" wizards of Mexia, Trumbull and McPhee.

One of the great pleasures of our annual re-unions now, is the "Home Coming." We have a home to which we go on the twenty seventh day of every June where we are greeted by true friends who have made us know their devotion to the South and who manifest this devotion by loving service to our living confederate soldiers, who are our sacred representatives of the South. As long as the survivors of Hoods' Brigade are spared with the strength of body to attend a re-union, they will hold that re-union in Bryan if it is left with them. Our soldiers look upon your chamber of commerce, your sons and daughters of the Confederacy and your citizenship as their own, and they feel a proprietary interest in our A. and M. College. His honor, the mayor Mr. Tyler Haswell, General H. B. Stoddard, Mrs. A. J. Buchanan and Mr. W. H. Cole, president of the Chamber of Commerce, eloquently gave the true, deep heart-ringing to their welcome. Dr. W. B. Bizzell, a son of the Confederacy, whose talents are dedicated to the glory of the South, spoke to us from a mind rich in resourceful knowledge and a heart true to the ideals of southern manhood and womanhood. Mr. Lee J. Rountree whose excellent legislative service has proven his devotion to his state, and whose journalistic ability has received national recognition, is loved by our Brigade as though he were their own son. Judge W. C. Davis speaks with the tongue of a patriot and he is a patriot in his devotion to the South, and his present day service to his people. We thank the Daughters for the delicious refreshments. Secretary S. E. Eberstadt's plans and arrangements for us in the manner that we most enjoy. Mr. T. K. Lawrence, our chairman, considered our comfort in every detail. The visit to the A. and M. College and the charming hospitality of the Rotary Club were a fitting close to our delightful re-union. We appreciated the assistance and the many courtesies of Rev. Moylan S. Bird.

May our dear Bryan friends be spared to us in health and happiness. May this beautiful Texas city receive the rare blessings which come to the unselfish and to those who love and serve others, and may this citizenship of well-bred, cultured, true hearted men and women continue to move forward, and to excel in all that is substantial, trust worthy, pure and good. ### MISS DAFFAN IS THANKFUL TO BRYAN FOR HOODS MEN

Miss Daffan Life Secretary Expresses Her Gratitude For The Old Soldiers of The Confederacy For The Great Entertainment at The Bryan Hoods' Brigade Annual Reunion.

(For the Bryan Eagle).

Houston, Texas, July 6.—To Our Bryan Friends: Again it is the honor and privilege of Hoods' Texas Brigade to express appreciation to our dear friends in Bryan for one of the most interesting and satisfactory re-unions ever held. One of the great pleasures of our annual re-unions now, is the "Home Coming." We have a home to which we go on the twenty seventh day of every June where we are greeted by true friends who have made us know their devotion to the South and who manifest this devotion by loving service to our living confederate soldiers, who are our sacred representatives of the South. As long as the survivors of Hoods' Brigade are spared with the strength of body to attend a re-union, they will hold that re-union in Bryan if it is left with them. Our soldiers look upon your chamber of commerce, your sons and daughters of the Confederacy and your citizenship as their own, and they feel a proprietary interest in our A. and M. College. His honor, the mayor Mr. Tyler Haswell, General H. B. Stoddard, Mrs. A. J. Buchanan and Mr. W. H. Cole, president of the Chamber of Commerce, eloquently gave the true, deep heart-ting to their welcome. Dr. W. B. Bizzell, a son of the Confederacy, whose talents are dedicated to the glory of the South, spoke to us from a mind rich in resourceful knowledge and a heart true to the ideals of southern manhood and womanhood. Mr. Lee J. Rountree whose excellent legislative service has proven his devotion to his state, and whose journalistic ability has received national recognition, is loved by our Brigade as though he were their own son. Judge W. C. Davis speaks with the tongue of a patriot and he is a patriot in his devotion to the South, and his present day service to his people. We thank the Daughters for the delicious refreshments. Secretary S. E. Eberstadt's plans and arrangements for us in the manner that we most enjoy. Mr. T. K. Lawrence, our chairman, considered our comfort in every detail. The visit to the A. and M. College and the charming hospitality of the Rotary Club were a fitting close to our delightful re-union. We appreciated the assistance and the many courtesies of Rev. Moylan S. Bird.

May our dear Bryan friends be spared to us in health and happiness. May this beautiful Texas city receive the rare blessings which come to the unselfish and to those who love and serve others, and may this citizenship of well-bred, cultured, true hearted men and women continue to move forward, and to excel in all that is substantial, trust worthy, pure and good. KATIE DAFFAN, Secretary of Hoods' Texas Brigade.

NAKED PEOPLE IN DALLAS.

Editor Lee Rountree, in the Bryan Eagle says: "Two New York women fought a bloodless duel on a street in that city on account of the perfdity and rascality of a worthless, degenerate man. About ten shots were fired by the jealous women, but without effect. It's a pity all the bullets hadn't entered the worthless hide of the degenerate manbrute." Must have patterned after our Dallas pair who scrapped in a field near Dallas a few weeks since. Things are spreading all right, and some of the communities are getting a little "badder" each week. Expressing pity over the waste of ammunition is going to accomplish very little. Give 'em the law limit and the ridicule that's necessary, and the change will come. Do as a farmer near Dallas did last week. Hearing a noise in his neighborhood he walked down to an abandoned gravel pit, partly filled with water, and found twenty-four men and women "dancing" around the water's edge, dressed in smiles and nature's own. He promptly swiped the clothes thundered his orders to get out of his field, and the bunch managed to get taxicabs home, riding in the costumes of Adam and Eve fashion. Oh, ho, hum! We are certainly progressing now, and don't you forget it.

Tuskookee Institute is talking too much about lynchings and not enough about law enforcement. "The wages of sin is death" and the heinous crimes will bring death—stop the crimes that bring on mob law.

Col. George Bailey of the Houston Post hasn't yet discovered the art of the Houston restaurant charging 75 cents for a cantaloupe that brings the Rio Grande valley farmer only 1 cent. George, it takes skill to carve cantaloupes.

The commercial and industrial possibilities of Navasota are limited only by the amount of energy and effort put forth by its citizens in taking advantage of their opportunities. Only concerted action on the part of everyone will bring the fullest realization of civic and commercial progress. The Chamber of Commerce, Civic Club and Young Men's Progressive League are the natural channels through which the activities of our people should be directed to the most effective use, and they are institutions which deserve the wholehearted support of all.—Navasota Examiner-Review.

As long as every real workingman has a loafer on his back to support there will be business depression and our crops will rot in the fields. It is a wonder that so many men will yet produce anything on the farm when a one half cent cantaloupe to the producer sells the next day to the ultimate consumer for fifty cents. Col. George M. Bailey of Houston is about the only man in Texas who understands these things.

"For twenty-five years I have, on all proper occasions championed and defended the cause of education. I shall not desert it now. I shall regard it as the crowning service of my public life if as governor, I can inspire and aid legislation that will insure to the youth of Texas educational facilities equal to those obtainable anywhere in the world."—Governor Neff.

Editor George C. Robinson of the Waco Times-Herald says: "Say, Brother George Bailey we just can't think of going on without first going back for an extra tire." O, George, just go on, trust to luck. If necessary make an extra tire out of your silk shirt. Certain dress parties in Dallas, Galveston and Hollywood are popular indeed.

Sterling P. Strong quits the race-hence will not have a chance to wear the senatorial toea. Bro. Strong comes out for Bob Henry in the final. In the meantime Clarence Ousley, Cullen Thomas, Earle Mayfield, Chas. A. Culberson and Robert Lee Henry are shelling the woods—all except Culberson and Phil Barry Miller for legislation in Dallas county. The declared several times he would not run again for the legislature but he's in again.

INTER-CHURCH ATHLETIC MEET
A. S. Ware asks that the committee appointed by the different pastors of the churches of Bryan on athletics meet tonight at the K. of P. Hall at 7:30 o'clock for a discussion of the future plans.

Lord Northcliffe has put another one of these easy-on-the-tugger fellows who talks too much about matters he knows little or nothing of in the United States. He reminds the Eagle of our own native rapsallion Col. George Harvey. There is the story of the foolish parrot and the watch dogs that ought to be read and re-read by Northcliffe and Harvey.

SAVING BUSINESS MEN FROM GROUP OF FAKIRS.

(Burleson County Ledger.)

The Ledger would call attention of the Commercial Club to an item appearing in the Bryan Eagle last Thursday where the advertising committee of the club saved the business men of that town several hundred dollars by turning down "fake" advertising schemes of transient people who tried to work the business men there and we ask that the council pass an ordinance requiring all such people to have a permit before they solicit these things in any city. The item referred to follows: "Secretary S. E. Eberstadt, acting for the Bryan Chamber of Commerce Advertising committee, turned down two scholarship schemes Saturday morning after investigation showing the proposition was a fake. Another man was soliciting funds for alleged charitable organization and had no credentials was refused an endorsement to operate on the people of Bryan. Another solicitor who wanted a large sum of money to get up a highway booklet and another who desired to get up menu cards at the expense of the business interests of Bryan when there was no merits in the proposition were turned down. The action of the committee saved the over-taxed business men about $1,000 and also protected the good name of the town. All these schemes were practically worthless and without warrant and are only a detriment to legitimate advertising and legitimate business."

Fatty Arbuckle who didn't know when he was well off is weeping to get back into the movies at $100,000 per year. Fatty should eat the husks a while—then we perhaps could receive him as the prodigal son. Not now, Fatty, you were too ignorant, blatant criminal and venal in your prosperity. Degenerates must really reform then they can come back into power and earthly glory and have another chance to fail.

The following advertisement met the eye of a certain Mineral Wells woman living on one of the avenues "For fifty cents I will tell you how I was cured of drinking, smoking, swearing, gambling, staying out late at night, playing golf and going to ball games." In due course she received an answer in the form of a printed slip which read: "By being placed in the penitentiary of Ohio for ten years." It is said that the lady was so furious for a few days she almost wished she could try the remedy on her husband.—Sam E. Miller in Mineral Wells Index.

The United States is perhaps the most wonderful country that ever existed. While it is now only two-thirds efficient and it is no wonder George Bailey, you are paying 35 cents for a 2 cent canteloupe. We are now going on the theory that our fruits and vegetables should rot before we move them under our present inefficient public service.

The Randall County News objects to Earle B. Mayfield, candidate for United States Senator, referring to his speeches for a political office. Some of our boys died for the flag and it doesn't seem that Mayfield is going far wrong when he defends the flag of our country. The editor of the News has a strange idea of patriotism.—Exchange.

Pat M. Neff, Fred Rogers, Harry Warner and Bro. Bowby are now on the last lap of the primary election fight. Their announcements have been made, platforms promulgated, applications for places on the ticket made and money put up and all are mounted for the last lap. There may be a run-off and there may not. If there is it will be a warm clash in August.

Count Tolstoi of Russia declares that the Russian Bolshevik leaders must secure food for the soldiers of the Soviet government or the army will go to pieces. By quitting work and production about 50,000,000 Russians are on starvation. Powder, lead, murder and paper money will not take the place of food and raiment some people in the United States who are following Russian doctrine should stop it and go to work before it is too late.

CANTALOUPE ARE ROTTING

A press dispatch says: "Brawley, Cal.—About 8,000,000 cantaloupes rotted on the ground in this vicinity Sunday the growers having decided to cease picking for a day and take the resulting loss in the hope that as a consequence overstocking of eastern markets would be eliminated and they could get a price for their product which would afford them a profit." Wonderful, isn't it? The farmers are offered 1 cent for their cantaloupes. The next day they sell for 10 and 15 cents and when served on dining cars and restaurants that afternoon they sell for 20 to 25 cents each. There are too many men not working in this country hence these prices are ruinous to everybody concerned. The producer gets nothing and the grafer gets it all.

BEAUTIFUL CITY PARK

Since the City has wired and replaced the broken globes on the street lights in the City Park there is a vast difference in the appearance of Bryan. "Never dreamed Bryan was so large a place." This is by no means an unusual question now from persons stepping off the train at night for their first visit to Bryan as they approach the park and see so much brilliancy on all sides. First impressions are lasting ones and good ones are never lost, whether they be for the individual or the community. Every citizen should feel he lives in the best town in the best state in these United States. If he can't do that he should move to some other town or nation.

CATTLE TO FT. WORTH

Amon Williams has returned from Fort Worth where he shipped and sold two car loads of steers. He will ship two additional cars on Tuesday. Prices are not high at present.

MRS. NAGLE WRITES OF BOARD OF DIRECTORS HER CHAUTAUQUA TRIP CHAMBER COMMERCE AND CLUB BIENNIAL HOLD REGULAR MEETING

Mrs. J. C. Nagle formerly of College Station and a former president of the Fourth District Federation of Women's Clubs write a very interesting letter from Chautauqua, New York, which is given in full in the Eagle for the pleasure of her Bryan and College friends the letter being under the date of Chautauqua Lake, New York, June 26: "Dear Mrs. Rountree: I'm sure you will wonder what I am up here for if I have time to write letters; but as a matter of fact, I am 'playing hooky' this evening so I am writing to you and I am addressing it to you for two reasons, first because I love you and the other is that I know if you find anything in it that you think would interest the club women of Bryan and College who are men of Bryan and College who will put it 'stay-at-homes' why you will put it in the Eagle. The Texas delegation is here 47 strong and you should hear us sing 'The Eyes of Texas' or give us a real good college yell, when one of our Texas celebrities has the platform. They tell me that it is a rather small crowd for the General Federation biennial but I didn't know there were so many smart women in the world. You know our Mrs. Floore made the program and every one says of course we knew it would be and it is the very best ever. It is certainly one continual 'feast of reason and flow of soul'."

"A word about Chautauqua. It is such a pretty, quaint place. A little city of cottages, small hotels and boarding houses, with the great amphitheater which I believe seats 5,000 and has a magnificent pipe organ right in the center of everything. On one side of the village is beautiful Lake Chautauqua, about 25 miles long and winding in and out among the hills. And dear heart, we are cold! I am writing this by a gas stove with all my winter clothes on. Last night I slept under two blankets and a wool quilt. There is not a fly or mosquito; nothing is screened. We sit through the sessions huddled up in thick capes, winter coats, and many (who possess them) in furs. Too cold for me in the summer time. I like to be comfortable in voiles and gingham!"

"But to return to the conference. The biggest thing so far has been Mrs. Winter's report of the Arms Conference. You know she is a wonderful speaker and really she made us feel that we were there seeing and hearing as she herself had. She spoke for over an hour and the huge audience sat in breathless attention. Mrs. Pennybacker has spoken several times and always 'gets across.' She is certainly 'it' both with the Federation and in Chautauqua. Mrs. Maggie Barry although almost ill with cold presented her Home Economics department in her usual clear and forceful manner. The Americanization and Citizens sessions have been most interesting and one of the speakers Judge Wade of Iowa stated that in his opinion Texas was doing the best work of any of the states along that line and especially mentioned the High School declamation contests on Americanization with glory in a splendid speech on 'Women and the American Legion.' Everyone was most enthusiastic over him. On Wednesday Miss Hallie Jamerson of the Overseas Unit is to talk to the conference. You may remember her coming to College."

"Our Mrs. Sims is naturally the most popular person and is having the time of her young life and our sweet and dignified State President Mrs. Joseph makes us always proud to say 'she is our Texas president.' We are proud of the Campus Study club having two representatives, Mrs. H. E. Smith and yours truly Mrs. Smith is most conscientious, doesn't miss a thing and takes copious notes. So the club will get it all. Mrs. Asin is expected this week so the Bryan Women's Club will also have two representatives. The largest representation is from Pennsylvania over a hundred you know that is the strongest club in the country. I believe Illinois has the next and then comes Georgia. Atlanta is asking for the 'counsel meeting' next year and St. Louis and San Francisco the next biennial. They are doing some campaigning. Dallas you know wanted it but for many reasons which I won't attempt to go into here it was decided best not to give the invitation at this time. I only hope it will be a little less hot than when I was in Atlanta in May. The main thing before us today was the Federation headquarters at Washington. It had to be there and I hope the clubs are going to see beyond their own little town affairs and help to raise the amount necessary to meet the obligation. It was very exciting and inspiring to hear the pledges given from the floor this morning and it was mighty hard to keep still but I had already pledged all I could afford in the Texas board meeting and I'm on my way to Europe. The result was to be announced this evening so when the folks come in I tell you what it was. They have just come in and say it won't be announced until in the morning so I will have to quit and go to bed. Am afraid after all I haven't told you much of interest. Give my love to every body in Bryan and College. I can't realize that I am not coming 'back home.' Fondly yours, EMILY ST. P. NAGLE."

REV. CRIMM SENDS AUTOBIOGRAPHY TO SLEDGE HOUSTON. (Somerville Tribune.)

A streak of good luck allows W. Sledge II upon the pleasure of enjoying the breeze in a late modeled Frick through the friendly slip of Rev. B. B. Crimm, the noted Baptist evangelist who offered to give the car to Sledge if he would pay the overhauling bill. Upon being advised that the floods had placed him in a condition to where he couldn't "flap a bread wagon with doughnuts at 30c a bushel," Rev. Crimm went him one better and shipped him the machine, all charges paid. Sledge is now enjoying life.

East Nashville, Tenn.—The efficiency of Theodor's Black-Draught, the genuine, herb, liver medicine, is vouched for by Mr. W. N. Parsons, a grocer of this city. "It is without doubt the best liver medicine, and I don't believe I could get along without it. I take it for sour stomach, headache, bad liver, indigestion, and all other troubles that are the result of a torpid liver."

"I have known and used it for years, and can and do highly recommend it to every one. I won't go to bed without it in the house. It will do all it claims to do. I can't say enough for it."

Many other men and women throughout the country have found Black-Draught just as Mr. Parsons describes—valuable in regulating the liver to its normal functions, and in cleansing the bowels of impurities. Theodor's Black-Draught Liver medicine is the original and only genuine. Accept no imitations or substitutes. Always ask for Theodor's.

NAKED PEOPLE IN DALLAS.

Editor Lee Rountree, in the Bryan Eagle says: "Two New York women fought a bloodless duel on a street in that city on account of the perfidy and rascality of a worthless, degenerate man. About ten shots were fired by the jealous women, but without effect. It's a pity all the bullets hadn't entered the worthless hide of the degenerate man. Must have patterned after our Dallas pair who scrapped in a field near Dallas a few weeks since. Things are spreading all right, and some of the communities are getting a little 'badder' each week. Expressing pity over the waste of ammunition is going to accomplish very little. Give 'em the law limit and the ridicule that's necessary, and the change will come. Do as a farmer near Dallas did last week. Hearing a noise in his neighborhood he walked down to an abandoned gravel pit, partly filled with water, and found twenty-four men and women 'dancing' around the water's edge, dressed in smiles and nature's own. He promptly swiped the clothes thundered his orders to get out of his field, and the bunch managed to get taxicabs home, riding in the costumes of Adam and Eve fashion. Oh, ho, hum! We are certainly progressing now, and don't you forget it."

Tuskookee Institute is talking too much about lynchings and not enough about law enforcement. "The wages of sin is death" and the heinous crimes will bring death—stop the crimes that bring on mob law.

Col. George Bailey of the Houston Post hasn't yet discovered the art of the Houston restaurant charging 75 cents for a cantaloupe that brinks the Rio Grande valley farmer only 1 cent. George, it takes skill to carve cantaloupes.

The commercial and industrial possibilities of Navasota are limited only by the amount of energy and effort put forth by its citizens in taking advantage of their opportunities. Only concerted action on the part of everyone will bring the fullest realization of civic and commercial progress. The Chamber of Commerce, Civic Club and Young Men's Progressive League are the natural channels through which the activities of our people should be directed to the most effective use, and they are institutions which deserve the wholehearted support of all.—Navasota Examiner-Review.

As long as every real workman has a loafer on his back to support there will be business depression and our crops will rot in the fields. It is a wonder that so many men will yet produce anything on the farm when a one half cent cantaloupe to the producer sells the next day to the ultimate consumer for fifty cents. Col. George M. Bailey of Houston is about the only man in Texas who understands these things.

"For twenty-five years I have, on all proper occasions championed and defended the cause of education. I shall not desert it now. I shall regard it as the crowning service of my public life if as governor, I can inspire and aid legislation that will insure to the youth of Texas educational facilities equal to those obtainable anywhere in the world."—Governor Neff.

Editor George C. Robinson of the Waco Times-Herald says: "Say, Brother George Bailey we just can't think of going on without first going back for an extra tire." O, George, just go on, trust to luck. If necessary make an extra tire out of your silk shirt. Certain dress parties in Dallas, Galveston and Hollywood are popular indeed.

Sterling P. Strong quits the race-hence will not have a chance to wear the senatorial toga. Bro. Strong comes out for Bob Henry in the finals. In the meantime Clarence Ouseley, Cullen Thomas, Earle Mayfield, Chas. A. Culberson and Robert Lee Henry are shelling the woods—all except Culberson and Phil Barry Miller is doing that and running again for the legislature in Dallas county. Miller declared several times he would not run again for the legislature but he's in again.

INTER-CHURCH ATHLETIC MEET

Lord Northcliffe has put another one of these easy-on-the-tugger fellows who talks too much about matters he knows little or nothing of in the United States. He reminds the Eagle of our own native rascaloon Col. George Harvey. There is the story of the foolish parrot and the watch dogs that ought to be read and re-read by Northcliffe and Har-

SAVING BUSINESS MEN FROM GROUP OF FAKERS.

(Burleson County Ledger)

The Ledger would call attention of the Commercial Club to an item appearing in the Bryan Eagle last Thursday where the advertising committee of the club saved the business men of that town several hundred dollars by turning down "fake" advertising schemes of transient people who tried to work the business men there and we ask that the council pass an ordinance requiring all such people to have a permit before they solicit these things. The item referred to follows. "Secretary S. E. Eberstadt, acting for the Bryan Chamber of Commerce Advertising committee, turned down two scholarship schemes Saturday morning after investigation showing the proposition was a fake. Another man was soliciting funds for alleged charitable organization and had no credentials was refused an endorsement to operate on the people of Bryan. Another solicitor who wanted a large sum of money to get up a highway booklet and another who desired to get up menu cards at the expense of the business interests of Bryan when there was no merits in the proposition were turned down. The action of the committee saved the over-taxed business men about $1,000 and also protected the good name of the town. All these schemes were practically worthless and without warrant and are only a detriment to legitimate advertising and legitimate business."

Fatty Arbuckle who didn't know when he was well off is weeping to get back into the movies at $100,000 per year. Fatty should eat the hushes a while—then we perhaps could receive him as the prodigal son. Not now, Fatty, you were too ignorant, blatant criminal and venal in your prosperity. Degenerates must really reform then they can come back into power and earthly glory and have another chance to fail.

The following advertisement met the eye of a certain Mineral Wells woman living on one of the avenues. "For fifty cents I will tell you how I was cured of drinking, smoking, gambling, staying out late, playing golf and going to ball games." In due course she received an answer in the form of a printed slip which read: "By being placed in the penitentiary of Ohio for ten years." It is said that the lady was so furious for a few days she almost wished she could try the remedy on her husband.—Sam E. Miller in Mineral Wells Index.

The United States is perhaps the most wonderful country that ever existed. While it is now only two-thirds efficient and it is no wonder George Bailey, you are paying 35 cents for a 2 cent cantaloupe. We are now going on the theory that our fruits and vegetables should rot before we move them under our present inefficient public service.

The Randall County News objects to Earle B. Mayfield, candidate for United States Senator, referring to the United States Flag in his speeches for a political office. Some of our boys died for the flag and it doesn't seem that Mayfield is going far wrong when he defends the flag of our country. The editor of the News has a strange idea of patriotism.—Exchange.

Pat M. Neff, Fred Rogers, Harry Warner and Bro. Bowley are now on the last lap of the primary election fight. Their announcements have been made, platforms promulgated, applications for places on the ticket made and money put up and all are mounted for the last lap. There may be a run-off and there may not. If there is it will be a warm clash in August.

Count Tolstoi of Russia declares that the Russian Bolshevik leaders must secure food for the soldiers of the Soviet government or the army will go to pieces. By quitting work and production about 50,000,000 Russians are on starvation. Powder, lead, murder and paper money will not take the place of food and raiment. Some people in the United States who are following Russian doctrine should stop it and go to work before it is too late.

CANTALOUPE ARE ROTTING

A press dispatch says: "Brawley, Cal.—About 8,000,000 cantaloupes rotted on the ground in this vicinity Sunday the growers having decided to cease picking for a day and take the resulting loss in the hope that as a consequence overstocking of eastern markets would be eliminated and they could get a price for their product which would afford them a profit." Wonderful, isn't it? The farmers are offered 1 cent for their cantaloupes. The next day they sell for 10 and 15 cents and when served on dining cars and restaurants that afternoon they sell for 50 to 75 cents each. There are too many men not working in this country hence these prices are ruinous to everybody concerned. The producer gets nothing and the graffer gets it all.

BEAUTIFUL CITY PARK

Since the City has revived and replaced the broken globes on the street lights in the City Park there is a vast difference in the appearance of Bryan. "Never dreamed Bryan was so large a place." This is by no means an unusual question now from persons stepping off the train at night for their first visit to Bryan as they approach the park and see so much brilliancy on all sides. First impressions are lasting ones and good ones are never lost, whether they be for the individual or the community. Every citizen should feel he lives in the best town in the best state in these United States. If he can't do that he should move to some other town, state or nation.

MRS. NAGLE WRITES OF HER CHAUTAUQUA TRIP AND CLUB BIENNIAL

Mrs. J. C. Nagle formerly of College Station and a former president of the Fourth District Federation of Women's Clubs write a very interesting letter from Chautauqua, New York, which is given in full in the Eagle for the pleasure of her Bryan and College friends the letter being under the date of Chautauqua Lake New York, June 26: "Dear Mrs. Rountree: I'm sure you will wonder what I am up here for if I have time to write letters but as a matter of fact I am 'playing hooky' this evening so as to write this and I am addressing it to you for two reasons, first because I love you and the other is that I know if you find anything in it that you think would interest the club women of Bryan and College who are 'stay-at-homes' why you will put it in the Eagle. The Texas delegation is here 47 strong and you should hear as sing 'The Eyes of Texas' or give a real good college yell, when one of our Texas celebrities has the platform. They tell me, that it is a rather small crowd for the General Federation biennial but I didn't know there were so many smart women in the world. You know Mrs. Floore made the program and every one says, of course we knew it would be and it is the very best ever. It is certainly one continual 'feast of reason and flow of soul'."

"A word about Chautauqua. It is such a pretty, quaint place. A little city of cottages, small hotels and boarding houses, with the great amphitheater which I believe seats 5,000 and has a magnificent pipe organ right in the center of everything. On one side of the village is beautiful Lake Chautauqua, about 25 miles long and winding in and out among the hills. And dear heart we are cold! I am writing this by a gas stove with all my winter clothes on. Last night I slept under two blankets and a wool quilt. There is not a fly or mosquito; nothing is screened. We sit through the sessions huddled up in thick capes, winter coats, and many (who possess them) in furs. Too cold for pig in the summer time. I like to be comfortable in voiles and gingham!"

"But to return to the conference. The biggest thing so far has been Mrs. Winter's report of the Arms Conference. You know she is a wonderful speaker and really she made us feel that we were there seeing and hearing as she herself had. She spoke for over an hour and the huge audience sat in breathless attention. Mrs. Pennybacker has spoken several times and always 'gets across.' She is certainly 'in' both with the Fed and in Chautauqua. Mrs. Maggie Barry although almost ill with cold presented her Home Economics department in her usual clear and forceful manner. The Americanization and Citizens sessions have been most interesting and one of the speakers Judge Wade of Iowa stated that in his opinion Texas was doing the best work of any of the states along that line and especially mentioned the High School declamation contests on Americanization sub-far with glory in a splendid speech on 'Women and the American Legion.' Everyone was most enthusiastic over him. On Wednesday Miss Hallie Jamerson of the Overseas Unit is to talk to the conference. You may remember her coming to College."

"Our Mrs. Sims is naturally the most popular person and is having the time of her young life and our sweet and dignified State President Mrs. Joseph makes us always proud to say 'she is our Texas president.' We are proud of the Campus Study club having two representatives, Mrs. H. E. Smith and yours truly. Mrs. Smith is most conscientious, doesn't miss a thing and takes copious notes. So the club will get it all. Mrs. Adams is expected this week so the Bryan Women's Club will also have two representatives. The largest representation is from Pennsylvania over a hundred you know that is a stonksome club in the country, I believe Illinois has the next and then comes Georgia. Atlanta is asking for the 'counsel meeting' next year and St. Louis and San Francisco the next biennial. They are doing some campaigning. Dallas you know wanted it but for many reasons which I won't attempt to go into here it was decided best not to give the invitation at this time. I only hope it will be a little less hot then when I was in Atlanta in May. The main thing before us today was the Federation headquarters at Washington. It had to be there and I hope the clubs are going to see beyond their own little town affairs and help to raise the amount necessary to meet the obligation. It was very exciting and inspiring to hear the pledges given from the floor this morning and it was mighty hard to keep still but I had already pledged all I could afford in the Texas board meeting and I'm on my way to Europe. The result was to be announced this evening so when the folks come in to tell you what it was. They have just come in and say it won't be announced until in the morning so I will have to quit and so to bed. Am afraid after all I haven't told you much of interest. Give my love to every body in Bryan and College. I can't realize that I am not coming 'back home.' Fondly yours, EMILY ST. P. NAGLE."

REV. CRIMM SENDS AUTO-BILE TO SLEDGE HOUSTON.

(Somerville Tribune.)

A streak of good luck flows W. Sledge II upon the pleasure of enjoying the breeze in a late modeled Frick through the friendly smile of Rev. B. B. Crimm, the noted Baptist evangelist who offered to drive the car to Sledge if he would pay the overhauling bill. Upon being advised that the floods had placed him in a condition to where he couldn't "flag a bread wagon with doughnuts at 30c a bushel" Rev. Crimm went him one better and shipped him the machine, all charges paid. Sledge is now enjoying life.

SMETANA CLUB GIRLS A WIDE-AWAKE BUNCH

(For the Bryan Eagle)

Smetana, Texas, July 3.—The girls club of Smetana met with Miss Rotten Monday morning June 26 for the purpose of organizing a sewing club. There were ten present at the meeting at the right side of the yard and colors, the flower being a red canna lily, which will be seen growing at the right side of the yard gate of each club member. We chose red and green for our colors. Since we had had a few lessons in sewing, Miss Rotten decided to let us make our caps and aprons first. And too as we the Smetana girls, have had four years of poultry work under County Agent C. L. Beason the thought we were far enough advanced to do this work.

Next Monday Miss Rotten will meet again with the girls and their mothers and give us a demonstration in last-making and the following week a dress form demonstration. We girls, with the help of others, are planning to give an entertainment to raise money to get a stove, so that we might start cooking lessons. Our club is a wide-awake crowd and with the help of our demonstrator we hope to do more than any club in Brazos county—and we'll do it! EMMA KOSAREK, A Club Member.

SOUR STOMACH INDIGESTION

Thedford's Black-Draught Highly Recommended by a Tennessee Grocer for Troubles Resulting from Torpid Liver.

East Nashville, Tenn.—The efficacy of Thedford's Black-Draught, the genuine, herb, liver medicine, is vouched for by Mr. W. N. Parsons, a grocer of this city. "It is without doubt the best liver medicine, and I don't believe I could get along without it. I take it for sour stomach, headache, bad liver, indigestion, and all other troubles that are the result of a torpid liver."

"I have known and used it for years, and can and do highly recommend it to every one. I won't go to bed without it in the house. It will do all it claims to do. I can't say enough for it."

Many other men and women throughout the country have found Black-Draught just as Mr. Parsons describes—valuable in regulating the liver to its normal functions, and in cleansing the bowels of impurities.

Thedford's Black-Draught liver medicine is the original and only genuine. Accept no imitations or substitutes. Always ask for Thedford's.

Brazos River Reclamation Association Meet at Cameron

(Special to the Bryan Eagle).

Cameron, Texas, July 3.—President Robert M. McLane and Secretary W. F. Skelton, of the Cameron Chamber of Commerce and Mayor J. B. White have announced that a district meeting of the Brazos River Reclamation Association organized at Bryan on May 15 representing twenty four counties of the Brazos River watershed will be held in Cameron on Friday night, July 7th, at which time the Chamber of Commerce of Rockdale, Thorndale, and Milano have agreed to join in the movement together with citizenships from Falls, Bell and Williamson counties. Among the speakers invited to address the meeting are: State Reclamation Engineer Arthur A. Stiles, of Austin, Representative Lee J. Rountree, of Bryan, Congressman Luther A. Johnson of Corsicana, Dr. B. Bunnemeyer, of Houston, representing the U. S. government, Secretary A. D. Jackson, of College and A. H. Dunlap of the State Board of Water Engineers at Austin. The purpose of the meeting as explained by Judge T. S. Henderson is to take action regarding the future work of the Reclamation Association for protection of the Brazos River watershed. It is understood that Representative Rountree favors the first action to be by the State to have a topographical survey made under governmental agencies to determine the scope and foundation of future work for impounding the flood waters, protecting the overflow lands from floods and to reclaim the inundated lands. It is understood that the movements will embrace all the territory from Young county on the north to Brazoria county on the south. The officers of the Association are: Jno. M. Lawrence, of Bryan, president; E. H. Astin, Bryan, vice president; A. D. Jackson, College Station, secretary and seven other vice presidents from Washington, Grimes, Waller, Falls, Robertson, Burleson and Milam counties. The plan now being considered is what is called the Bryan plan and has been approved by Governor Neff in the event a special session of the Texas Legislature is called before January 1923.

Reclamation and Flood Control Along the Brazos River

(By A. D. Jackson, Executive Secretary, Texas Experiment Station, and Secretary Brazos River Reclamation Association).

I have been asked to outline the purposes and prospects of the Brazos River Reclamation Association of Bryan, Texas, in promotion of Flood Control. In 1917 the people of Texas amended the State Constitution to enable the formation of flood control districts which can invoke every sort of engineering trick known, to effectively control the run-off of storm waters. The war and attendant business demoralization precluded any extensive application of the relief provided in the new Constitutional grant. Recent flood devastations and the clearing up of business conditions have goaded large property holders who are suffering increasing losses from flood to organize this Association whose purpose is to promote the optimum regulation of the run-off of the waters of the entire region drained by the Brazos River and its tributaries. This Association does not expect some paternal governmental power to improve and protect the property of its members as a gracious gift. It does not expect to secure any assistance possible from established governmental agencies in those overhead problems known and accepted as proper activities for governments in the encouragement of prospering production which may in turn yield up stronger governmental support, as for instance, when deserts and swamps are reclaimed and made productive they become tax yielders rather than governmental liabilities. We want to mobilize as many engineering crews from both Federal and State forces as can be worked economically upon the project to the end that we may know within a year, is possible, what sort of engineering works we need, where they will be located and what they will cost. These engineers are now engaged in what we believe to be desultory work in widely scattered regions, results from which, if we consider past experience, will be many years in maturing. Our's is a project requiring solution. We also want an economic survey made at once that will show what we can afford to spend on the project. We believe less rainfall is now required to cause a disastrous overflow than was formerly required. This is only conjecture and we want the Weather Bureau to tell us quickly if it is so. In short, the Association is now engaged in assembling necessary information of all sorts.

After the overhead work has been done and assuming that actual protection and reclamation will be attempted, it is inevitable that the expense must be apportioned to the lands protected from overflow or made irrigable or both, as the case may be according to the benefits accruing to the land by virtue of the improvement. The 1917 amendment introduced this doctrine into the Texas Constitution, which formerly provided only for the raising of revenues by ad valorem assessments. It also provides for the erection of districts which, when desirable, may cover, for instance, an entire stream water-shed without reference to county lines or other political subdivision within the State. We believe it will be found practicable to erect such a district to comprise all that territory within the State of Texas drained by the Brazos River and its tributaries. We believe that the impounding of water a favorable sites in the upper reaches of the streams; the terracing of farm lands in the hill country drained by the Brazos River and its tributary streams. We believe that the impounding of water in the hill country drained by the river; the foresting and reforesting of the untilled lands will all contribute to the retarding of the run-off of the storm water and minimize the leveling that will be necessary to protect the valley lands of the lower river. We believe the terraces will conserve the fertility of the farms, the impounding reservoirs will provide irrigation water and hydro-electric possibilities and the forest growth will supply needed timber, to say nothing of the protection of more than three million acres of fertile land from an increasing overflow hazard. We believe that the lands which may be irrigated and the lands which may be protected from overflow will be found by the surveys to amount to more than five million acres and that the cost to reclaim and protect these lands will probably not exceed fifty million dollars. Whatever the cost, if not prohibitive the district will want to borrow upon valid bond issues, the money to do the work. We confidently expect Federal assistance and State sanction in floating such a gigantic loan.

We believe we can assist greatly in controlling floods by impounding the flood water as near as possible to where they fall. That is why our Association is promoting flood control of the entire water-shed as a unit. A dam across the Brazos or any of its tributaries streams near their head waters will hold back just so much water from the floods that may be going down the stream; and these reservoirs may then be partially emptied when the release of the water will do no more damage, so that they may be ready to catch more water when it rains again. When enough of these reservoirs have been built to catch the surplus water so that the streams can carry what is left to go down, without overflowing their banks then every acre of land and every dollar's worth of property of any sort which has hereby been protected from overflow, will be benefited materially and can well afford to help pay for the dams.

Obviously a dam on the Colorado will not protect land on the Brazos and there is no direct connection between interests of owners of overflowed lands on one stream and the controlling works that might be erected on some other stream. In this sense the problem is restricted to a district problem, in the solution of which each stream water-shed must act independently. Also our legal machinery provides only for district financing of such projects. The State cannot issue bonds for any purpose under the Constitution and the people, since the E. J. Davis regime, have never seemed willing to arrange for State bonds of any sort. They are afraid of legislatures in the matter of making debts.

The State, however, owes to itself the profits and advantages it can reap by promoting improvements and general prosperity to the end that public revenues shall accrue sufficient to care for all proper State governmental functions. The State should aid with surveys and all such functions, these districts that are attempting improvements. It should adopt a fixed and forward policy. So also, ought the National government for the same reasons. In this sense the problem is state-wide and is nation-wide.

Our Organization. Each stream water-shed is a natural district with its own distinct problems, and its citizens ought to promote its best possible development. This is the idea of our Brazos Organization and I think, also, of the Colorado Organization, though the press reports seem to be stressing the statewide features discussed in Colorado meetings, while with ours the problems peculiar to the district have had the most publicity. I think, though, that both organizations must settle down to the attention of each of its own problems but sparing as much energy and enthusiasm as possible to arouse state-wide interest and attention to those phases that are state-wide in their nature.

Great economies can be effected if a state-wide organization will be formed and charged with the general tasks common to all the associations and I hope to see this done, but no plan can possibly be devised whereby a single organization can satisfactorily serve every local need of every local situation. For instance, when on a given stream, two reservoirs are possible where one would do or would be all that could be built with the funds at hand, it is inevitable that a local contest would develop as to which site should be selected, and there are numerous such possibilities that indicate the desirability of having many local organizations which can not only press the local problems, but can join the district and the state organization in the promotion of the larger problems. All these organizations have expenses and the people must contribute fund for them. The people are also entitled to a voice in expending the funds they contribute, or in short to have a voice in what shall be done by the organizations.

Our Association is at present being joined by business organizations and by groups of counties in turn, and it is expected that within the next three or four weeks every county in the water-shed, from the mouth of the river to at least one half way up the stream will have active membership in the Association and be represented in water so that the streams can be erected on some other active membership in the Association entitled to a voice in expending the funds they contribute, or in short to have a voice in what shall be done by the organizations.

BRYAN KU KLUX KLAN VISIT REV. BRACEWELL AT MILLICAN REVIVAL

Millican, Texas, July 3.—Just before Rev. C. M. Bracewell of Bedias began preaching and following the song service which began at 8:30 Sunday evening, nine robed and hooded members of the Ku Klux Klan entered the church, solemnly marched down the aisle and silently presented Rev. Bracewell with a letter, which he opened and read as the figures stood before the pulpit. The letter was signed by the Bryan Ku Klux Klan No. 48 of the Realm of Texas and stated that it stood for the tenets of the Christian religion, law enforcement, the sanctity of the home, the integrity of manhood and the honor of womanhood and wanted to endorse every movement for the general good. Rev. Bracewell, who is a Baptist minister conducting a revival meeting, read the letter, spoke a few words of appreciation and offered prayer. He said in times like these it was about time that stalwart men to take sides for law, order and religion. When he opened the package Rev. Bracewell found enclosed $25 in currency. This was found after the nine figures had passed down the aisle out of the church, getting in their automobiles and disappearing as quietly as they came into the church. The men were supposed to be members of the Bryan Ku Klux Klan.

"There are three of us in the race for governor," Mr. Warner said. "All of us are agreed on school problems on prison reform and law enforcement, but I am the only one with courage enough to take a flatfooted stand against the Ku Klux Klan which is the worst menace now facing our civilization."

"I am against the Klan and the first move I make after being elected will be against that organization to rid the state of the Klan is the first step in law enforcement," he said. "Neff, Mr. Warner said, 'has been deceiving the legislature to provide him more power for aid in enforcing the laws. I believe the governor now has sufficient power as provided by the statutes to enforce all our laws. ## BRYAN KU KLUX KLAN VISIT EX-CONFEDERATE SOLDIER WITH MONEY

Fifty-three years ago H. P. (Pete) Stacy came to Bryan from Jefferson, Texas, and began the business of contracting and building. Mr. Stacy was a Confederate soldier, born in Mississippi and has many stories to tell about early days in Bryan. He requested the Eagle to send a representative to see him Thursday and he was found confined to his bed and suffering greatly and has been ill for five years. He saved out the following letter: "Bryan, Texas, June 23, 1922. Mr. H. P. Stacy, Bryan, Texas. Dear Sir: Trying as best we can to be of some service to humanity where that service is most needed we are enclosing you herewith this little token which we trust that you will accept in the same spirit in which it is tendered. If you can use it to help brighten your pathway then it's purpose will have been accomplished. We understand that you are an old time member of our organization and a believer in its principles and we wish to assure you that the same high standards founded during the days of your active young manhood will be forever maintained by us. With very best wishes we are, Yours truly, KLAN NO. 48, Realm of Texas, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan."

The letter contained $10.00 and Mr. Stacy said it came in good time as he was greatly in need. In speaking of the Ku Klux Klan in the 70's he said he was a member of the original Klan organized near Bryan with about ten members. A few weeks afterward near Millican about 60 members were initiated one night in the Klan and about 90 men was the limit of the organization in Brazos county. In those days the negro federal soldiers had charge of this section and came to Bryan from Millican when the railroad arrived here. In speaking of the last of the 60's and 70's Mr. Stacy said: "Times were tragic here then as there was much drinking, gambling and killing and there was little protection under the law. The Ku Klux organization changed things greatly and restored order to a great extent. When things became almost unbearable and life and property were not safe this company of men rode through the country and talked to the bad men and desperadoes and suggested that they reform." Mr. Stacy asks the Eagle to thank those who sent the money and said two young men called at his bedside and one giving his name as Mr. Johnson handed him the envelope and quickly disappeared down stairs. In speaking of the visit Mr. Stacy said: "It cheered me up. I always want good men to come and see me as I cannot get out." He fell back in the bed exhausted and trembling in trying to tell the story. Mr. Stacy will not be here long—and he will pass over the River and meet Stonewall Jackson and his former comrades "under the shade of the trees."

STEEP HOLLOW GIRLS BUSY.

Steep Hollow, July 1.—The girls' club of Steep Hollow community met at the school house Friday morning June 30, at 9:30 o'clock. There were nineteen members present and every one was interested and eager to hear the many helpful things that Miss Ruten had to tell. In the last meeting Miss Ruten asked that each one of us bring a cup towel. Friday morning each girl was busy pulling threads and getting ready to hem the cup towel. We also cut out our cap patterns and decided on our club flower and club colors. From now on you will know a club member of Steep Hollow by the red canna lily growing at the right side of her yard gate. ## GRIMES COUNTY HAS WILD CAT OIL TEST

(Special to the Eagle).

Iola, Texas, July 3.—Much interest has been created in the showings found in the King & Olsen well drilling around 2400 feet one mile east of Iola in Grimes County. Strong gas showings and one good oil showing have been encountered. According to the driller, R. B. Lawrence of Houston, the formation is looking extremely favorable and a showing of pay sand is expected between 2700 and 3100 feet. Trading in leases around the 3500 test was more noticeable the past week. Parties from Mexico purchased offset leases to the well.

Reclamation and Flood Control Along the Brazos River

I have been asked to outline the purposes and prospects of the Brazos River Reclamation Association of Bryan, Texas, in promotion of Flood Control. In 1917 the people of Texas amended the State Constitution to enable the formation of flood control districts which can invoke every sort of engineering trick known, to effectively control the run-off of storm waters. The war and attendant business demoralization precluded any extensive application of the relief provided in the new Constitutional grant. Recent flood devastations and the clearing up of business conditions have goaded large property holders who are suffering increasing losses from flood to organize this Association whose purpose is to promote the optimum regulation of the run-off of the waters of the entire region drained by the Brazos River and its tributaries. This Association does not expect some paternal governmental power to improve and protect the property of its members as a gracious gift. It does not expect to secure any assistance possible from established governmental agencies in those overhead problems known and accepted as proper activities for governments in the encouragement of prospering production which may in turn yield up stronger governmental support, as for instance, when deserts and swamps are reclaimed and made productive they become tax yielders rather than governmental liabilities. We want to mobilize as many engineering crews from both Federal and State forces as can be worked economically upon the project to the end that we may know within a year, is possible, what sort of engineering works we need, where they will be located and what they will cost. These engineers are now engaged in what we believe to be desultory work in widely scattered regions, results from which, if we consider past experience, will be many years in maturing. Our's is a project requiring solution. We also want an economic survey made at once that will show what we can afford to spend on the project. We believe less rainfall is now required to cause a disastrous overflow than was formerly required. This is only conjecture and we want the Weather Bureau to tell us quickly if it is so. In short, the Association is now engaged in assembling necessary information of all sorts.

After the overhead work has been done and assuming that actual protection and reclamation will be attempted, it is inevitable that the expense must be apportioned to the lands protected from overflow or made irrigable or both, as the case may be according to the benefits accruing to the land by virtue of the improvement. The 1917 amendment introduced this doctrine into the Texas Constitution, which formerly provided only for the raising of revenues by ad valorem assessments. It also provides for the erection of districts which, when desirable, may cover, for instance, an entire stream water-shed without reference to county lines or other political subdivision within the State. We believe it will be found practicable to erect such a district to comprise all that territory within the State of Texas drained by the Brazos River and its tributary streams. We believe that the impounding of water a favorable sites in the upper reaches of the streams; the terracing of farm lands in the hill country drained by the Brazos River and its tributary streams. We believe that the impounding of water in the hill country drained by the river; the foresting and reforesting of the untitled lands will all contribute to the retarding of the run-off of the storm water and minimize the leveeing that will be necessary to protect the valley lands of the lower river. We believe the terraces will conserve the fertility of the farms, the impounding reservoirs will provide irrigation water and hydro-electric possibilities and the forest growth will supply needed timber, to say nothing of the protection of more than three million acres of fertile land from an increasing overflow hazard. We believe that the lands which may be irrigated and the lands which may be protected from overflow will be found by the surveys to amount to more than five million acres and that the cost to reclaim and protect these lands will probably not exceed fifty million dollars. Whatever the cost, if not prohibitive the district will want to borrow upon valid bond issues, the money to do the work. We confidently expect Federal assistance and State sanction in floating such a gigantic loan.

We believe we can assist greatly in controlling floods by by impounding the flood water as near as possible to where they fall. That is why our Association is promoting flood control of the entire water-shed as a unit. A dam across the Brazos or any of its tributaries streams near their head waters will hold back just so much water from the floods that may be going down the stream; and these reservoirs may then be active membership in the Association and be represented in water so that the streams can be erected on some other active membership in the Association entitled to a voice in ex-must settle down to the attention for the same reasons. In this stream, two reservoirs are possible and be represented in of any sort. They are afraid of attention to those phases regime, have never seemd will-lembe, but sparing as much ener-to al the associations and I hope can possibly be devised where-are numerous such possibilities folwed lands on one stream and the controlling works that might the interests of owners of over-to be benefitted materially and bute, or in short, o have a sap issue bonds for any purpose un-its deliberations. These contri-butions are coming from public spirited citizens anxious to pro-mote the objects of the Association.

BRYAN KU KLUX KLAN VISIT REV. BRACEWELL AT MILLICAN REVIVAL

Millican, Texas, July 3.—Just before Rev. C. M. Bracewell of Bedias began preaching and following the song service which began at 8:30 Sunday evening, nine robed and hooded members of the Ku Klux Klan entered the church, solemnly marched down the aisle and silently presented Rev. Bracewell with a letter, which he opened and read as the figures stood before the pulpit. The letter was signed by the Bryan Ku Klux Klan No. 48 of the Realm of Texas and stated that it stood for the tenets of the Christian religion, law enforcement, the sanctity of the home, the integrity of manhood and the honor of womanhood and wanted to endorse every movement for the general good. Rev. Bracewell, who is a Baptist minister conducting a revival meeting, read the letter, spoke a few words of appreciation and offered prayer. He said in times like these it was about time that stalwart men to take sides for law, order and religion. When he opened the package Rev. Bracewell found enclosed $25 in currency. This was found after the nine figures had passed down the aisle out of the church, getting in their automobiles and disappearing as quietly as they came into the church. The men were supposed to be members of the Bryan Ku Klux Klan.

WARNER WILL DESTROY K.K.K. AS SOON AS HE IS ELECTED GOVERNOR

Fort Worth, Texas, July 4.—"Fifteen minutes after I am elected governor I will start a movement to oust the Ku Klux Klan from the borders of Texas," Harry T. Warner of Paris, candidate for governor, declared in an interview in Fort Worth tonight.

Mr. Warner stopped over in Fort Worth on his way to Brownwood where he will be the principal speaker at the Fourth of July celebration. He stated he will return to Fort Worth Wednesday for a conference with Judge E. W. Napier of Wichita Falls and will go to Dallas Wednesday afternoon for a conference with associates concerning his campaign.

"There are three of us in the race for governor," Mr. Warner said. "All of us are agreed on school problems on prison reform and law enforcement, but I am the only one with courage enough to take a flatfooted stand against the Ku Klux Klan which is the worst menace now facing our civilization."

"I am against the Klan and the first move I make after being elected will be against that organization to rid the state of the Klan is the first step in law enforcement," he said. "Neff, Mr. Warner said, 'has been deceiving the legislature to provide him more power for aid in enforcing the laws. I believe the governor now has sufficient power as provided by the statutes to enforce all our laws. It is not a case of lack of power but a case of a lack of moral courage and unwillingness to act.'"

BRYAN KU KLUX KLAN VISIT EX-CONFEDERATE SOLDIER WITH MONEY

Fifty-three years ago H. P. (Pete) Stacy came to Bryan from Jefferson, Texas, and began the business of contracting and building. Mr. Stacy was a Confederate soldier, born in Mississippi and has many stories to tell about early days in Bryan. He requested the Eagle to send a representative to see him Thursday and he was found confined to his bed and suffering greatly and has been ill for five years. He saved out the following letter: "Bryan, Texas, June 23, 1922. Mr. H. P. Stacy, Bryan, Texas. Dear Sir: Trying as best we can to be of some service to humanity where that service is most needed we are enclosing you herewith this little token which we trust that you will accept in the same spirit in which it is tendered. If you can use it to help brighten your pathway then it's purpose will have been accomplished. We understand that you are an old time member of our organization and a believer in its principles and we wish to assure you that the same high standards founded during the days of your active young manhood will be forever maintained by us. With very best wishes we are, Yours truly, KLAN NO. 48, Realm of Texas. Knights of the Ku Klux Klan."

The letter contained $10.00 and Mr. Stacy said it came in good time as he was greatly in need. In speaking of the Ku Klux Klan in the 70's he said he was a member of the 70's Klan organized near Bryan with about ten members. A few weeks afterward near Millican about 60 members were initiated one night in the Klan and about 90 men was the limit of the organization in Brazos county. In those days the negro federal soldiers had charge of this section and came to Bryan from Millican when the railroad arrived here. In speaking of the last of the 60's and 70's Mr. Stacy said: "Times were 'rag' here then as there was much drinking, gambling and killing and there was little protection under the law. The Ku Klux organization changed things greatly and restored order to a great extent. When things became almost unbearable and life and property were not safe this company of men rode through the country and talked to the bad men and desperadoes and suggested that they reform." Mr. Stacy asks the Eagle to thank those who sent the money and said two young men called at his bedside and one giving him the envelope Mr. Johnson handed him the envelope and quickly disappeared down stairs. In speaking of the visit Mr. Stacy said: "It cheered me up. I always want good men to come and see me as I cannot get out." He fell back in the bed exhausted and trembling in trying to tell the story. Mr. Stacy will not be here long—and he will pass over the River and meet Stonewall Jackson and his former comrades "under the shade of the trees."

(Special to the Bryan Eagle).

Chicago, July 6.—Strong willingness to grasp olive branch of peace until it breaks or until the strike of shopmen finally settled was expressed by President B. M. Eighteen workers were driven from the shops Wednesday. Yesterday 25 were driven out. According to leaders of the strikers, the nonunion workers are being placed aboard trains and sent out of town. Counting women and children, there were nearly 300 in the party which stormed the C. and A. shops. They hurled chunks of iron, bolts and stones as they advanced. # BAPTISTS DEFEATED METHODISTS IN BIG CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

(By C. S. Beckwith)

The Baptist vs. Methodist baseball game at the Bryan Country Club on July 4 was a great success. Promptly at 3:24 p. m. Rev. H. C. Willis and Rev. Jno. A. Held called their husky warriors together and told them that they were about to play a game of baseball and to bury all unpleasant recollections that they had against each other then turned the affair over to Jas. Sullivan of "Hole-in-one fame."

It might state here that Mr. Sullivan is a wonderful umpire and proved it by the way he handled the game both mentally and physically. The Methodists who think they are a privileged bunch immediately took the field.

First Inning, first half—Baptists: Pinkney Graham singled to left field, stole second and went to third on a pass ball by H. Beard. Will Locke hit to center, Thompson scored.

Levis Thompson singled to right scoring Graham. A. P. Ford tripled to center scoring Thompson. Elbert Gammon popped up a short fly to no. M. Lawrence, Jr. Jno. thinkin it was not necessary to catch the ball, let it drop on the ground then seeing his mistake picked it up and threw wide to Guy Boyett, Gammon then took second. Marshall Bullock singled to center, Gammon scoring. Bullock took second on the throw to the plate. Beard let the ball get away from him and Bullock took third. Weintzel, better known as Overland Jack, singled to center scoring Bullock. Weintzel stole second. A. L. Smith or Whiskey Smith singled to center scoring Weintzel. Duff Simpson bunted safely along third base line and was out stealing. Graham popped to Lawrence.

First Inning, second half—Methodists: Smith looked Sealy Caldwell over and thinking he was a babe Ruth threw him four wild ones. Lawrence tried to cut the atmosphere all to pieces and Sullivan called him out. Ford went over and told Smith how to pitch to Ransom Cole and this had some effect for Ransom struck out. Caldwell went stealing.

Second Inning, first half—Baptists: Locke fouled out to Beard. Jim Beard gave Thompson four perfectly good balls. Thompson out stealing. Ford singled to Cox.

Second Inning, second half—Methodists: Boyett popped out to Simpson. Cox swung at three wide ones H. Beard singled to Bullock.

Third Inning, first half—Baptists: Gammon shot a hot one at Lawrence who failed to reach it. Bullock lined to Caldwell. Jno. only had two hands and could not handle it. Gammon going to second. Weintzel hit to Lawrence who threw Bullock out at second. Gammon going to third. Weintzel and Gammon worked the old relay steal on the Methodists and got away with it. Gammon scoring. Smith out Lawrence to Boyett. Weintzel stole third. Simpson out on three called strikes.

Third Inning, second half—Methodists: Smith, momentarily lost control and let Ed Jenkins walk but A. S. Ware looked at him just once and he struck Williams and Jim Beard out. Caldwell out Weintzel to Graham.

Fourth Inning, first half—Baptists: Rascos Cole now went on the firing line for the Methodists. Jim Beard went to the showers. Jim simply couldn't get that fast one of his to break quick enough and he lost control of that wicked hook of his that gave him such a reputation as a hurler. Cole couldn't see the plate and Graham walked. stole second and third. Locke lined to left for two bases. Graham scoring. Locke got caught between second and third. Ford struck out.

Fourth Inning, second half—Methodists: Lawrence got free transportation to first. Ransom Cole singled to center. Lawrence going to second. Boyett lifted a high one to Bullock who let it get away from him. Bases full. (Dr. Held and A. S. Ware hold conversation.) Smith looks to the bench for instructions. Cox tried to knock the ball into the next county and struck out. Beard hit to Smith who threw wild to first. Lawrence and Cole scoring. Jenkins had difficulty with Smith's slants and struck out. Boyett caught the Baptist battery in a state of coma and stole home. Williams fanned.

Fifth Inning, first half—Baptists: Gammon singled to center. took second on a passed ball by M. Beard. Bullock hit to Roscoe Cole who threw to third and cut off Gammon. Weintzel hit to short. who booted baby Bullock going to second. Smith lined to center, the ball took a bad bounce and it got past Williams. Bullock and Weintzel scoring. Williams threw to the plate. Smith going to third on the throw. Duff Simpson fanned. Graham out Cole to Boyett.

Fifth Inning, second half—Methodists: Cole singled to center. Caldwell hit to Ford who fumbled but recovered an throw to Simpson to cut off Cole. Simpson threw throw. Cole tried to purloin third but Gammon had the ball waiting for him. Caldwell steals second. Lawrence gets a free pass. Ransom Cole hit to left. Thompson was slow on the return. Caldwell scored. Jno. Lawrence thought he would do a little thieving and stole third. A. S. Ware again looks at Smith and Boyett is passed intentionally. Cox hit to Gammon who threw to Weintzel. to cut off Lawrence. Weintzel drops ball. H. Beard hit a nice Texas Leaguer to center. Cole and Boyett scoring. Ray Jones who replaced Jenkins in right field had the satisfaction of swinging at three wide ones. Cox scored on a passed ball by Weintzel. Walker who replaced Williams in center tripled to left scoring Beard. Ware threw out the S. O. S. call after the dust had cleared away Smith was playing first, Graham, at short, Ford a knowledge dispenser for Prof. Madison Hall was on the slab. Roscoe Cole singled to right scoring Walker. Cole out stealing.

Sixth Inning, first half—Baptists

Locke hit to Cox who tried to kick it over to first base. Thompson popped to Cox who threw to Boyett doubling Locke. Ford knowing that pitchers seldom hit, deliberately struck out.

Sixth Inning, second half—Methodists: Caldwell hit to Smith who fumbled, but caught Caldwell napping off first. Lawrence fanned. Cole out, Ford to Smith.

Seventh Inning, first half—Baptists: Gammon sent up a little pop fly. Ran. Cole turned around 5 times actual count, and then let it fall safe. Gammon stole second Bullock was puzzeled with Cole's fast breaking slants struck out. Weintzel hit to Cole who threw to Boyett who dropped it. Smith hit to center, Gammon was called out by Sullivan. Will Locke thought he was playing football and was running interference for him. Simpson fanned.

Seventh Inning, second half—Methodists: Boyett must have said something to Ford for Ford deliberately hit him. Cox popped to Graham who muffed it in such a way that it bounced off his gloved hand into the hands of Thompson who was backing him up. Beard out Graham to Smith. Jones fanned.

Eighth Inning, first half—Baptists: Graham lined to Walker. Locke out Cox to Boyett. Thompson hit to Lawrence who threw to first but Boyett dropped the ball. Ford to Cole who threw low to first. Gammon hit to center, Thompson scoring. Bullock hit to Cole who threw to second to cut off Gammon but throw was wide. Gammon goes to third. Weintzel hit to Lawrence who fumbled. Bullock going to second. Smith then pounded a nice two-base clout, scoring Gammon and Bullock and Weintzel stole home. Graham hit to short who booted. Graham stole second. Locke fanned.

Eighth Inning, second half—Methodists: Walker was safe when Gammon booted, stole second and third base. Ros. Cole struck out. Caldwell was safe. Walker scoring. Lawrence hit to left. R. Beard scored to Thompson. Boyett hit to center, scoring Lawrence and Caldwell. Cox whiffed.

Ninth Inning, first half—Baptists: Roscoe Cole who is a spit ball artist, was relieved by Caldwell, the Baptists like anything that is wet and they soon got to Roscoe. W. E. Johnson replaced Williams in center. Thompson hit Caldwell who tried to stop it with his foot but failed. Cole fielded to ball nicely but was to anxious to get it to first and heaved it into the crowd. Ford lifted one to Jones in right, Raymond only has one hand and muffed.

Ninth Inning, second half—Methodists: Beard popped up to Graham. Jones out, Ford to Smith. Gammon couldn't handle Walker's grasser and he was safe, stole second. Cole out. Simpson to Smith.

Heard Along the Side Lines.
A. S. Ware sweated out three colars during the fifth inning.

Rev. H. C. Willis asked the airplane man to take him some place, he didn't care where.

We hear that during that fifth inning that Dr. Jno. A. Held was crawling on his hands and knees towards home.

Claude Walker may not be a ball player but he makes all this up in rooting.

We don't know much about these Sunday school boys but they sure can steal bases. Pinkney Graham nearly stole Beard's glove.

Dr. Held asked by actual count 719 times what the score was. He said he was very sorry that he had only one mouth but he made up the difference by waving his hands and making signs.

You could not pick any stars or spectacular playing because there wasn't any. But on a whole the boys played good ball for the amount of practice they have had.

Guy Boyett wanted to play a little different than the rest. every time a ball was thrown at him he would sit down and try to catch it.

Somebody said that if the Baptists beat the Methodists there was something wrong, the game must have been fixed.

Albert Goodman who was the official scorer for the Baptists walked 7 miles and drank 5 gallons of water.

Sully you sure umpired a good game the only thing you missed was the conversation between Dr. Held and Claude Walker.

In passing we might state that the score was 19 to 12, the Methodists on the short end. Time of game 2:21.

Mr. Egan stated further that he found ten thousand hens doing well from year to year on a small plot of ground on this particular Alabama poultry farm. Let everybody begin now to make preparations for the great Brazos county poultry show December 6, 7, and 8.

JEWELL SEEMS ANXIOUS TO SETTLE RAILWAY TROUBLE

President Jewell States Today He Is For Peace and It Looks Probable The Railway Strike Will Soon Be Settled—Fights Reported at Slater, Missouri.

(Special to the Bryan Eagle).

Chicago, July 6.—Strong willingness to grasp olive branch of peace until it breaks or until the strike of shopmen finally settled was expressed by President B. M. Jewell, of the railway employees department of the American Federation of Labor. The defiant attitude seems to be gone and a dispatch from Slater, Mo., says: "Railroad officials awaited word from Governor Hyde before making further plans for re-opening of the Chicago and Alton shops here from which a crowd of more than 500 strikers drove eighteen workers yesterday."

WARNED NOT TO DAMAGE I. AND G. N. PROPERTY.

Houston, Texas, July 6.—James A. Baker, federal receiver for the International and Great Northern railway, Wednesday warned striking shopmen of the I. and G. N. that any interference with the road's operations would result in contempt of court proceedings. The warning followed the picketing of the local I. and G. N. shops by striking men. Placards declaring the intention of the receiver to institute contempt proceedings should the picketing be continued were posted at numerous points about company property Wednesday. Similar warning has been served upon strikers at Palestine and other terminals of the I. and G. N., rail officials stated.

FIGHT GOING ON AT SLATER, MISSOURI.

(United Press Report).

Slater, Mo., July 6.—Striking shopmen Wednesday seized the Chicago and Alton railroad shops here, ousted nearly a score of nonunion workers and barricaded themselves to resist attack. Upwards of 100 men were in the attacking party, according to reports to Sheriff John Logedon, at Marshall, Mo., the county seat. The reports failed to state whether the men were armed. Eighteen workers were driven from the shops Wednesday. Yesterday 25 were driven out. According to leaders of the strikers, the nonunion workers are being placed aboard trains and sent out of town. Counting women and children, there were nearly 300 in the party which stormed the C. and A. shops. They hurled chunks of iron, bolts and stones as they advanced. Taking the 18 men in custody, the storming party marched to the outskirts of the city, where the workers were warned to remain away from Slater.

INTERFERING WITH UNITED STATES MAILS.

Washington, July 6.—Interference with the movement of the United States mails by striking railway workers in different parts of the country was reported today to the office of the superintendent of railway mail service. The reports came from Marshall, Texas; St. Louis, Mo.; Chaffee, Mo.; Kansas City, Mo., and De Quincy, La. Officials of the Texas and Pacific Lines at Marshall reported that their trains and trains on other roads in the same territory are being materially delayed as a result of interference by strikers and their friends who, it was alleged, were tampering with air appliances and otherwise preventing proper movement of trains.

BAPTISTS DEFEATED METHODISTS IN BIG CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

(By C. S. Beckwith)

The Baptist vs. Methodist baseball game at the Bryan Country Club barbecue on July 4 was a great success. Promptly at 3:24 p. m. Rev. H. C. Willis and Rev. Jno. A. Held called their husky warriors together and told them that they were about to play a game of baseball and to bury all unpleasant recollections that they had against each other then turned the affair over to Jas. Sullivan of "Hole-in-one Fame."

It might state here that Mr. Sullivan is a wonderful umpire and proved it by the way he handled the game both mentally and physically. The Methodists who think they are a privileged bunch immediately took the field.

Locke hit to Cox who tried to kick it over to first base. Thompson popped to Cox who threw to Boyett doubling Locke. Ford knowing that pitchers seldom hit, deliberately struck out.

Sixth Inning, second half—Methodists: Caldwell hit to Smith who fumbled, but caught Caldwell fanning off first. Lawrence fanned. Cole out, Ford to Smith.

Seventh Inning, first half—Baptists: Gammon sent up a little pop fly, Ran. Cole turned around 5 times actual count and then let it fall safe. Gammon stole second Bullock was puzzeled with Cole's fast breaking slants struck out. Weinzelt hit to Cole who threw to Boyett who dropped it. Smith hit to center, Gammon was called out by Sullivan. Will Locke thought he was playing football and was running interference for him. Simpson fanned.

Seventh Inning, second half—Methodists: Boyett must have said something to Ford for Ford deliberately hit him. Cox popped to Graham who fumbled off his glove and into the hands of Thompson who was backing him up. Beard out Graham to Smith. Jones fanned.

Eighth Inning, first half—Baptists: Graham lined to Walker. Locke out Cox to Boyett. Thompson hit to Lawrence who threw to first but Boyett dropped the ball. Ford to Cole who threw low to first. Gammon hit to center, Thompson scoring. Bullock hit to Cole who threw to second to cut off Gammon but throw was late. Gammon goes to third. Weinzelt hit to Lawrence who fumbled. Ninth Inning, first half—Baptists: Roscoe Cole who is a spit ball artist, was relieved by Caldwell, the Baptists like anything that is wet and they soon got to Roscoe. W. E. Johnson replaced Williams in center. Thompson hit Caldwell who tried to stop it with his foot but failed. Cole fielded to ball nicely but was to anxious to get it to first and heaved it into the crowd. Ford lifted one to Jones in right, Raymond only has one hand and muffed.

Ninth Inning, second half—Methodists: Beard popped up to Graham. Jones out, Ford to Smith. Gammon couldn't handle Walker's grasser and he was safe, stole second. Cole out. Simpson to Smith.

Heard Along the Side Lines.
A. S. Ware sweated out three colors during the fifth inning. Rev. H. C. Willis asked the airplane man to take him some place, he didn't care where.

We hear that during that fifth inning that Dr. Jno. A. Held was crawling on his hands and knees towards home.

Claude Walker may not be a ball player but he makes all this up in rooting.

We don't know much about these Sunday school boys but they sure can steal bases. Pinkney Graham nearly stole Beard's glove.

Dr. Held asked by actual count 719 times what the score was. He said he was very sorry that he had only one mouth but he made up the difference by waving his hands and making signs.

You could not pick any stars or spectacular playing because there wasn't any. But on a whole the boys played good ball for the amount of practice they have had.

Guy Boyett wanted to play a little different than the rest. Every time a ball was thrown at him he would sit down and try to catch it.

Somebody said that if the Baptists beat the Methodists there was something wrong, the game must have been fixed.

Albert Goodman who was the official scorer for the Baptists walked 7 miles and drank 5 gallons of water.

Sully you sure umpired a good game the only thing you missed was the conversation between Dr. Held and Claude Walker.

In passing we might state that the score was 19 to 12, the Methodists on the short end. Time of game 2:21.

BRAZOS COUNTY BOYS AND GIRLS CLUB DEPT.

Club Notes and Farm News by County Agent C. L. Beason.

Wellborn Community Club.

Last Saturday night the people of Welborn formed a community organization by electing Hugh Dowling president, Mrs. Dr. Leigh vice president and Douglas Royder, secretary-treasurer.

Interesting talks were made by Hon. Lee J. Rountree, S.E. Eberstadt, J. H. Kraft, County Superintendent, Eck Smith, A. W. Buchanan, Mrs. Lee J. Rountree, M. M. Erskine, P. L. Barron, Hugh Dowling and others.

County Agent Beason referred to the demonstration in canning beef conducted by Miss Laura Belle Rotten, Home Demonstration Agent, on Thursday before when more than 50 people of the neighborhood came out to see the work in progress and enjoy the splendid dinner prepared by the good ladies of Welborn community. There is now no doubt but what Welborn is going to have one of the finest community centers in the county in the near future. A wonderful opportunity for community betterment awaits the concerted action of the Welborn people. Secretary Eberstadt who is an enthusiast for rural organizations believing that by such many of the ills affecting our people can be cured, suggested a box supper as a means to obtain money for lights, seats, etc. for the old school house, which is to be used as the community house, or center. If the Welborn people will place Mr. Eberstadt in charge of this enterprise, or box supper, the money will be forthcoming.

John Egan, district agent, Extension Service, A. & M. College of Texas, in making to the members of the Extension staff at the regular first Monday conference, July 3 a report of his recent trip to several of the Eastern states said that he visited one poultryman near Birmingham, Alabama, who paid income taxes on thirty thousand dollars earned from his poultry industry last year. Mr. Egan stated further that he found ten thousand hens doing well from year to year on a small plot of ground on this particular Alabama poultry farm. Except for grit and scenery, we see no advantage of Jefferson county, Alabama, over Brazos county, Texas, so far as the success of poultry raising is concerned. Let everybody begin now to make preparations for the great Brazos county poultry show December 6, 7, and 8.

J. E. Bloodworth, county agent, Harrison county, Texas states in his June report to the Extension Service that the Lions Club and the Chamber of Commerce of Marshall, Texas, will send several boys to the Short Course at College Station, July 24-29. This is a most commendable step in these enterprising organizations of a far away East Texas town and county, and will, evidently prove Shall we have a Brazos County Day during the Short Course, when business men and farmers will take a day off to visit their great agricultural school right at their door, and to mingle with farmers and business men from other parts of Texas coming here in an endeavor to find the solution to farm problems—and there are many—and to get a better viewpoint of agriculture in its relation to the economic, intellectual and social development of our country. The solution of a problem which is a relation to practical life amounts to but little.

The Rotary Club will go to Tabor next Friday, leaving the Library at sundown. Let everybody be on time with his car. This time the county agent will take the fiddlers and other musicians.

Mr. T. J. Conway, poultry husbandman, A. & M. College of Texas, will represent the Brazos County Poultry Association at the Tabor meeting next Friday night. "Chickens" is always his subject.
